

(G5 Science) Plan of Performance Assessment

( Criteria of assessment: Excellent/ Satisfactory/ Needs Work )

	Scope	Objective	Unit	Content	Method	Time
1	Life and the Earth	Can describe and analyze the steps of the water cycle including evaporation, condensation and precipitation.	Unit 2: Weather	To state the steps of the water cycle, evaluate the importance of certain components, and identify key weather functions.	Quiz	September
2	The Natural Environment	Can categorize biotic and abiotic factors. Can explain how different members of a food chain interact.	Unit 1: Eco Systems	To list biotic and abiotic factors, identify elements of a food chain, and make hypotheses about the importance of each element.	Quiz	October
3	Body Systems	Can identify the functions of bones and muscles. Can describe and label the digestive, circulatory, respiratory, urinary and nervous systems. Can show how exercise impacts the different body systems.	Unit 4: The Body	To locate the features of body systems, identify body parts, and examine a body's need for exercise.	Quiz and labelling systems and parts of the body.	November